We are showing among other things in our windows a seven-piece Quartered Oak Chamber Suit, polish finish, for $62. This Suit hasn't a cheap thing about it, not even in the chairs. It is high grade in every sense of the word. Four inch rolls appear on the head and foot to the bed and corresponding quartered rolls on the dresser. The mirror is the best quality of French plate, 24 x 30, beveled. All in all this suit is the most attractive we have seen. What do you say?

The Daylight Store

TO THE FINISH

This next week finishes our calendar year. We may not be able to clean out every thing that we would like to, but we are coming very near to it. Yes, nearer than for several seasons past. We will put onto our counters Monday all odds and ends, also all goods that we are willing to take a loss on to close that week as follows:

FIRST

This will attract more than any other January sale, and that is this:

All of our short lengths and Remnants, every short piece that we have anywhere in the store.

Remnants of Dress Goods, Silks, Wash Goods, Cotton Goods, Shirtings, Apron Gingham and all yard goods, such as Lace and Hamburgs.

Remnant of Damask, Dress Linings and all short lengths.

SECOND

This stocktaking sale hits hard and deep in our Garment Department.

Little Coats for the young ladies that are just as good for next season as for this, now at but a part of their cost.

Coats for the little ones at half price and for the older ones at only about one-third of the original price. We loaded heavier on the larger sizes, is the reason for such a big break in price.

$2.98 and $3.98 will give you as good a Misses' Coat as one could buy in October for from $7.50 to $12.00.

THIRD

On our tables for this week are what we have left of Waists and Kimono Cloths.

All of our Wool Waists now in this week's sale. Commencing Monday morning at nearly half price, while they last, or all of this stock-taking week.

Muslin Waists that have become a little soiled from Christmas handling now at less than cost.

A few things in Hosiery and Underwear at a saving this week.

After this week's sale you will begin to get Spring goods. There are lots of things in this sale that you can make a large saving on.
